W Daniel, I have lived a good life, but not a perfect one. I have made many mistakes, but I have learned from them. You will also make mistakes, and you will learn from them as well. But it is my hope that you can learn the lessons that I learned from my mistakes without having to make them yourself. That is why I have created this wisdom will for you. I believe with absolute certainty that if you take the things to heart that I'm about to share with you your life will be better. Your life will be easier. Your life will be more enjoyable. And you will be more successful. Everyone has heard the phrase "hindsight is 20/20". And everyone knows just how true it is. I am giving you the gift of hindsight. In some ways, this document can predict the future. Let me explain. If you don't take to heart certain things you will read here I guarantee an outcome with very similar if not the same results. Not everything you will read are mistakes I made. Some are mistakes I witnessed others making and to my credit, had enough sense not to repeat them. And not everything you read here will be mistakes at all. I've made some good decisions that are worth repeating too. Some of the things you read here will be easy to do. Some will be difficult. Some you'll probably follow and some you won't. But I guarantee everything you read here can and will help you immensely if you let it. I believe there are hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of information in these pages. It can easily be millions if you want it to be. So, let's get to it.
